

BIO DESTINY "INSPIRE" KINGCANNON

Destiny Inspire, widely known as The Authority Architect, is a leadership advisor, consultant, speaker, best selling author, and Bible teacher. Based in Atlanta, Georgia, by way of Augusta, Georgia, she has spent nearly a decade partnering with God to build Destiny Inspire LLC navigating both market and ministry.

For a decade, she has specifically helped high impact women and leaders restore lost and mistaken identity, heal internally, well as develop unshakable confident authority in Christ in order to impact the world. Through dynamic keynotes, transformational programs, and leadership initiatives, Destiny equips high impact leaders, entrepreneurs, and busy professionals to lead with resilience, strategic clarity, authority, and conviction.

Grounded in leadership principles, neuroscience, and a biblical foundation, she provides practical strategies that strengthen communication, remove barriers to growth, and empower others to lead with confidence, purpose, and lasting influence. Helping believers to operate in Kingdom alignment and dominion.

Destiny's influence spans corporate organizations, local government, churches, schools, and leadership platforms. She has been recognized as Atlanta's Fastest Growing Empowerment Expert by Rolling Out magazine and as one of Atlanta's 25 Sisters with Superpowers, alongside former Atlanta Mayor Keisha Lance Bottoms. She was also honored as a Powerhouse Woman in Ministry at the Georgia State Capitol for her influence in faith based leadership and has been featured on The Word Network, one of the world's largest faith based television networks.

She is the founder and servant leader of The Queen Counsel Empowerment Group, a global community of more than 1,200 women founded in 2019 to equip women through prayer, biblical teaching, and spiritual growth. She also leads The Charge Leader Call, where she encourages and equips leaders of faith to walk boldly in their calling through sound teaching and practical encouragement.

Her ministry and marketplace influence has reached audiences across the United States and internationally, including Bali, New Zealand, Bermuda, Abu Dhabi, the Bahamas, and the Dominican Republic. Grounded in faith and shaped by resilience, Destiny's life and leadership reflect her unwavering commitment to seeing lives transformed by the power of God. Her guiding prayer and life conviction remain:

"Lord, let my life bring You joy, and let my light win You souls."
