

About me

Pastor Gabrielle Mitchell-Brown is a pastor, evangelist, and mentor with a deep passion for evangelism and discipleship. She is committed to seeing lives transformed through the power of God's Word and faithfully walking out the calling placed on her life. She is the founder of Pastor Gab Ministry, built on the mandate to be Built to Lead. Called to Serve.

Born into ministry, Pastor Gabrielle began leading in ministry at the age of thirteen, Teaching Youth Sunday School, Bible Study, and Vacation Bible School under the divine leadership of her parents, Apostle Dexter and Pastor Shawanna Mitchell. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Christian Education and a Master's degree in Ministry from the School of Great Commissioners Bible College.

She is a devoted wife to her husband, Mr. Jaalen Brown, and a proud mother of five children: Jeremiah, Jace, Jrue, Jaylee, and Jayvan. She values family as a vital foundation of ministry and discipleship and finds joy in intentional moments with her children, believing ministry begins at home.

Pastor Gabrielle currently leads Mandate Mondays Prayer Call and Midwives Brew: Coffee and Conversation Bible Study, creating intentional spaces for prayer, teaching, and spiritual growth. She is also the founder of SheFire Women's Ministry, a movement dedicated to raising women who are Fueled, Focused, and Fearless in their faith, identity, and God-given purpose.

She lives by the scripture Proverbs 4:18, believing that "the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day." With a strong heart for mentorship and development, Pastor-Evangelist Gabrielle is passionate about pushing individuals into their purpose through coaching, discipleship, and spiritual accountability, empowering them to walk boldly in what God has called them to do.
