

About me

Pastor Dr. Diamond Blount is a devoted mother, revivalist, speaker, celebrity hair and makeup artist, entrepreneur, and visionary from Atlanta, Georgia, dedicated to helping people experience transformation from the inside out. She is the Founder and CEO of PiinkDiamondz Beauty, where she has served in the beauty industry since 2016, using her craft to restore confidence while creating spaces where people feel seen, valued, and empowered.

With a background in Business Administration, a Master Cosmetology education, and an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters, Diamond has built a career that merges excellence, leadership, creativity, and service. As a celebrity hair and makeup artist, her artistry has been featured in film and television productions, music videos, and national and international projects. Her work extends beyond the beauty industry into leadership development, mentorship, and community impact, reflecting her commitment to helping others grow with purpose.

As a revivalist and pastor, Diamond is passionate about prayer, discipleship, and developing leaders who live with intention and boldly embrace their God-given identity. Through teaching, mentorship, and authentic conversations, she equips individuals to move beyond potential into purposeful action by stewarding their gifts, strengthening their faith, and executing the vision God has entrusted to them.

Known by many as “The Accomplisher,” Diamond has a unique ability to transform vision into reality. Whether launching initiatives, building communities, developing leaders, or creating opportunities for collaboration, she is recognized for carrying ideas from conception to completion with excellence, integrity, and intentionality.

Her life’s mission is to bridge beauty and purpose, reminding people that true transformation begins within and is reflected in every area of life. Whether behind the chair, behind the microphone, or serving her community, Diamond is committed to helping others encounter Divine Transformation and become all they were created to be.

Niche: Beauty & Divine Transformation

Personal Quote:

“I believe true beauty is the evidence of divine transformation. When identity is restored, purpose is awakened, and vision is executed, lives are forever changed.” —
Pastor Dr. Diamond Blount